They have names. They had dreams.

More than 13.000 children killed, many more still under the rubble or nearly dying of hunger. When will we act?

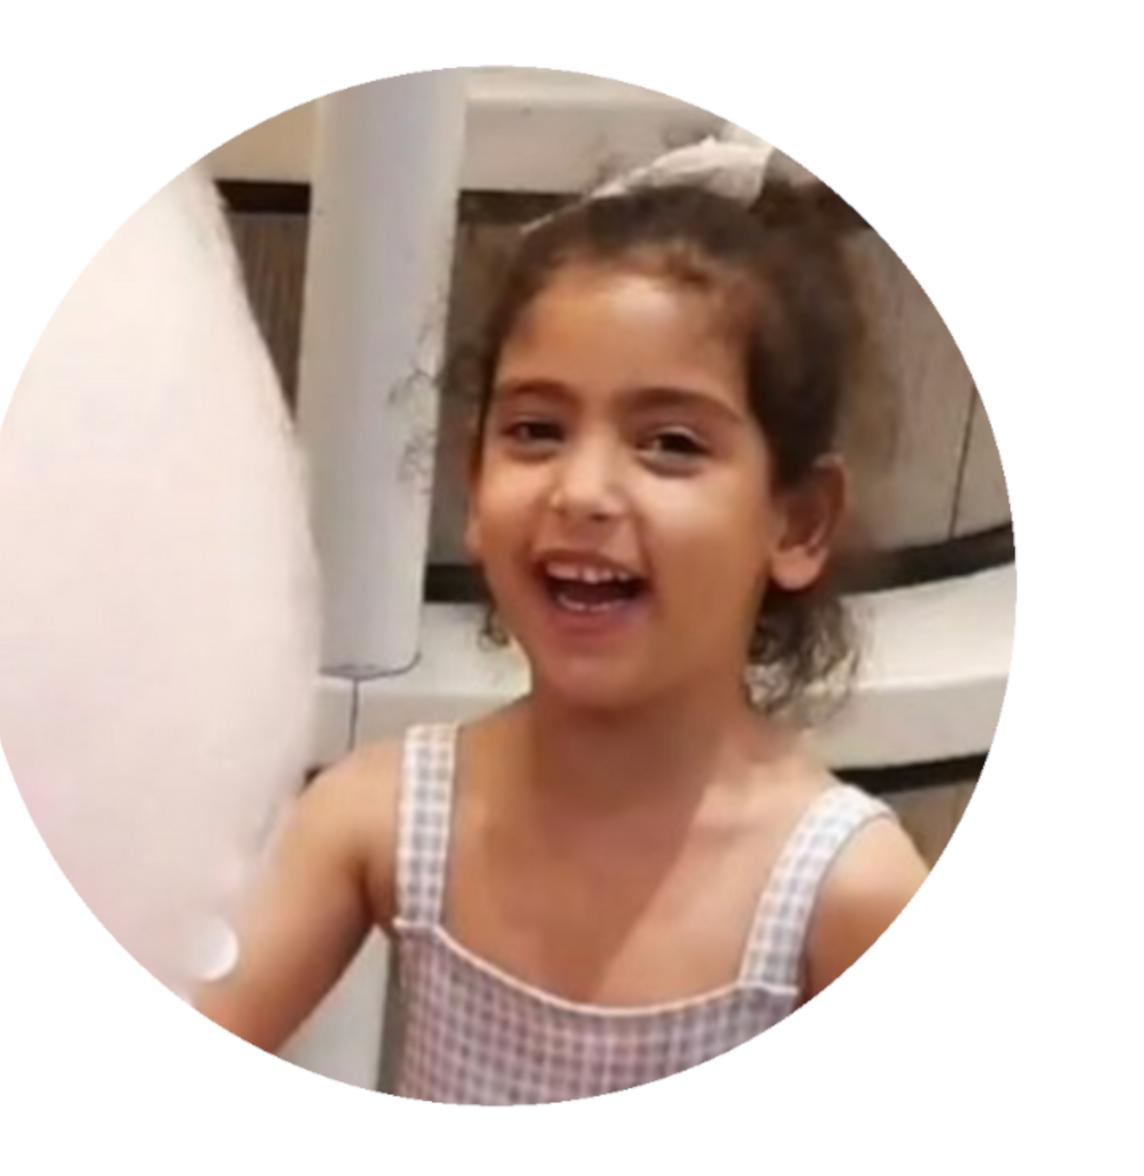

Bassam brothers The Bassam's whole family line was wiped out in an instance by an Israeli missile. These three boys were killed alongside their parents, one month old sister and their father's entire family. From the youngest grandchild to their grandparents, the whole family has been martyred.

Julia Abu Hussein (2) On November 26th, Julia was eagerly waiting for the arrival of her aunt Rasha, to take her to buy sweets. When the first bombs fell, Julia's mother, Rawan, grabbed her daughter and ran into the kitchen. But a piece of shrapnel killed Julia in her mother's arms.

Harith Al-Hawajri (15) Harith had a deep love for the sea, especially the waves of the Gaza Sea. He was a talented swimmer who found joy in surfing on his simple surfboard during the summer. At just 15 years old, his life was cut short.

Rahaf Alsaqqa (5) The Israelis killed beautiful Rahaf Alsaqqa and her father Mohammed #freepalestine Alsagga on November 12th. A tank targeted hem while they were trying: to escape south through "the safe corridor". This is Rahaf in better times.

Ayman (1) This is baby Ayman and his father. Ayman was named after the brother of a good friend of his father, who was killed by Israel in 2014. On October 23, 2023, baby Ayman was killed with his father and his grandparents and all his family.

Beirut Abu Shamaleh Her father named her Beirut as she was born the same day as the Beirut explosion of 2020. Little did he know she would have the same fate and die in an explosion from an Israeli missile. May she rest in Paradise.

theyhavenames.net